INTRODUCTION.

Introduction to the Prophecy to be shewn—The gathering together of the Nations.

This work will be published in numbers, and it is dedicated to all the Nations upon this earth, and who are Jews and Gentiles called. It is texts of Scripture or truth so done, and evidenced; written, forming a discourse and manifesting in and by various parts of holy writ or truth, that prophesies which endureth for ever, the good, mysterious, marvellous, and wonderful work of the Lord God, a Spirit and Prophet, our Righteous and Heavenly Father's, the only good Spirit and Being, and his word, his truth, and prophesy of the Scripture, which was fulfilled, publicly interpreted to the world, and which came to pass at his appointed time; and in the year 1851, the gathering together of all the nations, Jews and Gentiles, to praise Him, the just and good Governor of them, the King of kings, of heaven, of earth, and of saints, the all-glorious mason and architect and founder of the universe, of the sea, the heavens and earth, and rivers and fountains of waters, and of his Church and Tabernacles among men upon earth, and who is one in glory and in heaven with Jesus the Lord, the offspring and Son of David called in holy writ, and the Day Star, the bright and the Morning Star, and the well-beloved Son of God, a Prophet and Spirit, who in the name of the Lord God of Israel spake, and unto Saul, and said, I am Jesus, and who prophesied, foretold it, that Moses wrote of him, and he spake truth and things to come to pass and to be done, and foretold, prophesied these, that he will return and will build again the Tabernacle of David. this truth, these texts of Scripture here and prophesies, to see that; for the holy Scriptures, or truth, is God a Spirit's good works, just deeds, commandments, and prophesies to be made manifest, ye dwellers upon this earth, read the fifteenth of Acts, the ninth of Amos, and the thirty-third of Isaiah, and the forty-third of Isaiah and ninth verse. And be watchful, and all nations, as Jesus the truth, the offspring of David, that great Prophet Moses the prophet wrote of, says, and had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me, for he wrote of me. And read the eighteenth of Deuteronomy and the fifth of John and forty-sixth verse, to see that; for Jesus is the Lord, and that great prophet Moses the prophet wrote of and prophesied of; and it is written in the Law of Moses, upon this earth, called Genesis, Exodus, Liviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy, that the Lord spake unto Moses. And the Lord said unto Moses that his word shall come to pass; and mark the word of the Lord God, who is a Spirit and Prophet, it is truth. Be watchful, hearken diligently all nations; observe this thing and hear, O Israel. It is truth, the holy Scriptures, those commandments and prophesies, and spiritual gift of God and good works; and it is truth came to pass, and a prophesy of the Scripture, and in the year 1851, and at God's appointed time, and was publicly then interpreted to the world—the gathering together of all the nations, Jews and Gentiles called,—and a good, mysterious, and marvellous, and wonderful work of God Almighty, a Spirit and Prophet, and miracle of his, it was the gathering together of all the nations in the year 1851, to praise Him and raise Him up a Tabernacle among men upon earth, and a Holy Catholic or Universal Church, and House of Prayer for all People, as they did then of that place—the Glass House, the Crystal Palace called,—and built to receive them, all nations, people, sects, and tribes, and to praise and worship the Lord God, a Spirit, the King of kings, of heaven, of earth, and of saints, in and one in glory with the Lord, the Prince of Peace and offspring of David, Jesus; as prophesied the fifteenth of the Revelations, the twenty-second Psalm, and fifty-sixth and sixty-sixth of Isaiah, and the third, twenty-first, and twenty-second of Revelations, and the third of Joel, and by other prophets' writings and prophesies. And mark, and watch. The Lord God, a Spirit and Prophet, Jehovah, spake by the prophets and by his well-beloved and only begotten Son, Jesus, the bright and the Morning Star, and Day Star, and offspring of David, and Salem, and Prince of Peace called, and who lived at Jerusalem; and he was a Prophet, and by him and the prophets Moses and Ezekiel, the Lord God spake, and it is truth by them, all nations. It is his word he foretold or prophesied shall come to pass and be done and be obeyed, and as can be seen reading the twelfth of Ezekiel and eleventh of Numbers, and the fifteenth of Acts, ninth of Amos, nineteenth of Exodus, and the Revelations or prophesies of Jesus Christ's; and that Jerusalem is to be built again, and to be seen a Tabernacle and a place of solemnities, a House of Prayer for all People, or Holy Catholic or Universal Church, and militant upon earth it is to be a new Jerusalem, and by a new name Jerusalem shall be called. It is foretold by the prophets and Zechariah, and a city of truth, and as towns without walls, clear as crystal, as it were transparent glass. New Jerusalem is to be built and seen, and a Tabernacle raised up, not to be taken down. Read the texts of Scripture or truth evidenced and done, so worked out, written and proved here, and the 33rd of Isaiah. Watch, mark, and read to see that; for in two books, two works published early in the year 1851, one by myself, the writer of this, a woman, and the other by a man, one of the Reverend Brethren, by texts of Scripture those symbols, those signs, by truth so done and proved, therein written. in different languages, one in English, called "What is Truth Evidenced," and which was published at Mr. Law's, 131, Fleet-street, London, England, and early in the year 1851, and before the Glass House—the Crystal Palace called—was finished building, and the other work written in French, and published at the same period, and at 47, Leicester-square, London, England, and called Le Palais de Crystal. and tenth verse, and the forty-third of Isaiah and ninth verse, and before the Glass House—the Crystal Palace called—was finished building. Mark in the two works above named and published, one by a man and the other a woman, by texts of Scripture truth or the Gospel, so first published among all nations, so done, written, it was prophesied and foretold what the Glass House theu building would become, and that Alleluia would be sung there, and that it would be censecrated, made a Holy Catholic or Universal Church of and House of Prayer for all People, as it afterwards was, as this work will prove; and that it signified to the nations and people upon this earth, and was the forerunner of the New Jerusalem, a Tabernacle to be seen raised up, not to be taken down, and as it is truth prophesied, foretold shall come to pass, and be done by Jesus, the truth, the offspring of David, that great Prophet Moses the prophet wrote of, and by the Lord God, a Spirit, and by his prophets. ninth of Amos, and the third, twenty-first, twenty-second, and other Revelations, to see that; for it is truth, all nations, foretold or prophesied shall come to pass and be done,—that your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and that Jerusalem shall be seen a Tabernacle. And all nations are imperatively commanded by the Lord their God, and Righteous and Heavenly Father, and in holy writ or truth, which is prophesies to prove, not to despise prophesyings, to covet to prophesy, and to desire spiritual gifts, but rather that they may prophesy. And it is truth that great High Priest and Prophet, the offspring of David, Jesus, has promised and prophesied,—the Day and the Bright and the Morning Star called in holy writ,—that blessed are they that do his commandments which are upon this earth,—wonders, miracles, mysteries, truth, and prophesies, to prove and obey, and mark, read, and watch,—the first of Thessalonians and the fifth chapter, and the twenty-second of the Revelations, and the third and twenty-first, those prophesies of Jesus Christ's, and the first of Corinthians and fourteenth chapter, and despise not prophesyings, and mark, and read, and watch the Epistle where that is commanded—Despise not Prophesyings.

WATCH.

And it is Truth—the Word of the Lord God; and it does come to pass. Watch! And all nations—Jews and Gentiles—observe this thing; for it is Truth came to pass, and in the year 1851—the gathering together of all the nations. Read and Watch the forty-third of Isaiah, and the ninth verse, for at the appointed time of the Lord God Almighty, a Spirit and Prophet—Jehovah—it was a Prophecy ef the Scripture, and a good, mysterious, marvellous Work, and Wonder or Miracle he, the Lord God, did then shew;—it is Truth came to pass and was done; and was obeyed then; which he commanded to be done—the gathering together of all the nations;—as in this work, divided into numbers, will be shewn. And all nations hear the Word of God, and do it—or Truth—that gospel, and be Watchful and Mark! The Word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord God; and the Word that I shall speak shall come to pass; and that he foretold by his Prophets and Moses and Ezekiel. And the Word of the Lord God Almighty, or Truth, does come to pass, and shall be done, it is foretold, prophesied. And his brethren are these which hear the Word of God and do it—the Saviour of the world, Jesus the Righteous, and the Truth,, the offspring of David, has prophesied, foretold—be watchful of that ; and to hear the Word of God and to do it ; for Jesus is the Lord, the Righteous—he commands you—all nations, and warns you, by Truth, or Holy Writ, Everlasting, to do Truth, and to hear it ;—and to all nations and people those are divine orders and commandments of his, Jesus Christ's, the Truth, a Spirit and Prophet, the Righteous and the Just,—and to be done and obeyed. Hear the Word of God and do it. And he has foretold it by God's Holy Word—that Truth,—the Holy Scriptures,—those Prophecies, and Gospel, and good tidings, and justice, and good works to be proved,—that blessed are they that do his Commandments, which are Truth—to do, and obey, and write, and divide, and to keep holy,—and in various ways Truth is commanded to be done, as well as to be preached and published. Watch! And He, Jesus, the Righteous and the Just, the Faithful and True, who has given these Commandments—to deaf, to dumb—to all souls, and nations, and people upon this earth, to do and obey this Truth—to do and to obey—to hear the Word of God, and to do it—he has foretold or prophesied, justly and graciously, by his Word, the Lord God,—by Truth—that Gospel—the Holy Scriptures—those Prophecies ;—he has foretold or prophesied thereby, how deaf, dumb, and all upon this earth, can be sure they hear Truth, or the Word of the Lord God Almighty ; and do it, and by writing it, which is spiritual ; and it—that Gospel—endureth forever ; but tradition can make it of none effect ;—and it warns all of tradition, and of the works of the devil, to be renounced and crushed ; and the Lord our God has commanded all so to hear and to do Truth—to write it, and to keep it holy, and to obey it, and to divide it ;—and your blessed and righteous Lord and God Almighty
